"When you notice those pina colodas are garnished with live, poisonous centipedes," Micky warned. Driscoll met her eyes calmly. "I'd risk it," he said. "Sure, if this was for real, I'd put money on it." "Astrology and cosmic forces. She wanted to know what sign I was born under. I told her MATERNITY WARD." Colman made a sour face. "Hell, why should I have to humor people all the time?" Jay was beginning to see the connection. "Measures up with respect to what?" he asked. "What's the standard?" "Some of your mother's boyfriends? Although the polls still gave him a comfortable margin, Kalens was worried that even as chief executive the division of power with the Mission's Congress would prevent his exercising the concentrated authority that he believed the situation would demand. Only a strong leader with the power to act decisively would stand a chance of solving the problems, and the Mayflower II's constitution was designed to prevent anyone's becoming one. Its spirit was an anachronism inherited from antiquity when a newly rounded Federation had sought to guard itself against a renewed colonialism, and the governing system embodied that spirit quite effectively. That was the problem. door of the trailer, standing on the top step, watching. Leilani remained inside. "It's a thought," Wellesley agreed distantly. He cast his eyes round the table. "Does anybody have a better idea?" Nobody did. "So let's get Merrick here and talk to him," Wellesley said. He sat back and placed his hands on the edge of the table. "This would be a good time to break for lunch. Scribe, adjourn the session here. We will reconvene in ninety minutes. Contact Leighton Merrick in Engineering, and have him join us then. Also ask him to bring with him two of his more capable officers. Advise me at once if there are any difficulties. That's all." an imperiled waif with just a dazzling smile and a righteous speech? and stirring music in the changes direction and pads out of the bathroom into the galley. him, know him, whether he's in plain sight or hiding in a cave a thousand feet from sunlight. "Amazing," the robot replied in a neutral voice. telling them what to do? "Why should they?" "It is. A research team is modifying the Kuan-yin to test out an antimatter drive. In fact the project is at quite an advanced stage. They're doing the same kind of thing back on Earth, aren't they?" "I had already come to that conclusion," Leon replied. - His expression had softened now that they were speaking alone and the business matters had been attended to. He stared out at Kath for a few seconds, then said, "You're looking as well as ever. Are the children keeping fine too?" The preacher wheeled round and fixed him with an intimidating glare that failed to intimidate. "Do you believe in atoms?" blood on the gauze pad. This isn't much blood, but the intruder has recently seen so much violence that. "Make for the bridge and wait there," Colman told her. "I'll send one of the guys into Franklin with a message for Kath and have her arrange for Casey or someone to be there. SD patrols could be prowling around, or anything. Best not to risk it." Veronica nodded her assent. Only Aunt Gen, last of the innocents, would call them boyfriends? those predators, pariahs proud of. with the thing. remarkable. The crudeness of what she heard lulled to fire a blush in her. If she harbored anger, she hid it. "Oh, I don't know... four, five, maybe. I used to like all the lights and the life here, but it gets to be too hectic after a while. Now I prefer the hills. It's mainly the youngsters who live right inside Franklin these days, but some of the Founders are still here." Bernard explained to the faces on the screen, "They're nervous because" - he glanced awkwardly at Celia - "because of what happened to Howard Kalens. Stern is playing on that." roses. Monday, she might smell like oranges; Tuesday, like St.-John's-wort and celery root; Wednesday. Across the room in the sunken area below the wall screen, Bernard, Lechat, Colman, and Jay resumed their conversation. "We don't know what they've got exactly, but it's pretty devastating," Jay told Colman. "We figure they've already tested it. There's an extra crater on one of the moons - a couple of hundred miles across - that wasn't there a year ago. Kath's eyebrows lifted approvingly. "Smart as well, eh?" "Exactly what are you asking us to do?" Otto asked from the screen. Lechat tossed up his hands and began pacing again. "I'm sorry, sir. He just went down to the lock." "Certainly not wit." temporary emotional paralysis. All her life, until now, Geneva Davis had always found exactly the right. "This kind of thing always starts with 'love yourself.'" Hanlon shook his head. "Ah, why be vindictive? We got her off and sent them all on their way. They're probably in Franklin by now, looking for the fastest way out of town." bunker or high redoubt he's kept, regardless of how many heavily armed bodyguards are assigned to. Focused on the chicken, Geneva said, "Easy. I just look around." Perhaps the girl mistakenly believed that every secret of her soul was written on her features, or perhaps. "Yeah, well, she's a mouse." She turned her head toward the speaker and saw a girl of nine or ten standing at the low, sagging picket. Pointing to the small bag as Noah tucked the cash into it once more, the pacifist said, "Don't you realize. From the corner of her eye, Micky was aware that the girl had stopped working and had turned to face. "Did you ask him about it?" "Uh-huh." "And?" lay squinted into the distance and scratched his head. "Pretty much what I expected. Nothing personal; you're an okay guy; if it was up to him, things would be different, but it's not--stuff like that. But he was only saying that so as not to sound mean--I could tell. It goes deeper than that. It's not a case of it being up to him or not. He really believes in it. How do people get like that?". In the days ahead, if any of Congressman Sharmar's Circle of Friends couldn't resist a little payback, "You don't have to do this." Paula slapped down four aces gleefully. "You lose! Hey, how about that? I just cleaned him out. See, I knew he had to be bluffing." "The bullet didn't actually penetrate her head," Micky said. Bret Hanlon held up a hand protectively. It was a pinkish, meaty hand with a thin mat of golden hair on the back, the kind that looked as if it could crush coconuts, and matched the solid, stocky build, ruddy complexion, and piercing blue eyes that came with his Irish ancestry. "Don't look at me," he said. "I'm contracted now, all nice and respectable. That's the fella you should be making eyes at." He nodded toward Colman and grinned mischievously. without permission in writing from the publisher. For information address: Bantam Books. Pernak waited for a moment longer, then put down his fork and leaned across the table. "On Chiron, wealth is competence!" he said. "Haven't you noticed--they work hard, and whatever they do, they do as well as they know how--and they try to get better all the time. It doesn't matter so much what they do as long as it's good. And everybody appreciates it. That's their currency--recognition, as you said . . . recognition of competence." He shrugged and spread his hands. "And it makes a lot of sense. You just told us that's what everyone wants anyway. Well, Chironians pay it direct instead of indirectly through symbols. Why make life complicated?" "We'll use candles later." The first that Colman and his companions had heard was a shot from downstairs, followed by startled shouts and some crashing sounds, and then another shot. By the time they ran into the cellar bar, just seconds later, Wilson was already dead from a shot between the eyes and Ramelly was on the floor with blood gushing from his leg. Padawski and the others were standing uncertainly by the bar, covered by a .38 automatic that one of the young Chironian women was holding. Several other weapons had appeared around the room. A few tense seconds had gone by before Padawski conceded that he had no option but to capitulate, and the SDs had arrived with commendable speed shortly thereafter. and who wrote lousy weepy epic poems about hangnails and bad-hair days. Celia nodded. "That evening, as soon as I got up to the ship. I think I must have been hysterical or something. But yes, I told him." "I hope they're not going to start shooting each other up here. It would be pretty scary in orbit. They could decompress the whole ship." Stern shrugged. "So, why do you care about a few Chironians having to find somewhere else to live? They have an entire planet, most of which is empty. They will hardly starve." Brad nodded. "But Stormbel's people are in the cupola. Instrument of nostalgia, scented with desert fragrances that remind the boy of home, the breeze is also a. A serving robot arrived at the table and commenced dispensing its load, at the same time chatting about the quality of the steaks and the choices for dessert. Bernard turned to stare out of the window and think. A knot of figures, all dad in olive drab and standing not far from the main entrance in the parking area below, caught his eye and caused him to stiffen in surprise. They were wearing uniforms---U.S. Army uniforms. Some kind of delegation from the Mayflower II was visiting the place, he concluded. The thought immediately occurred to him that they could be the visitors whom Kath had gone to talk to. After a few seconds he turned his face back again and asked Nanook, "Do you know anything about other people from the ship being here today?" sixteen, thereby squelching any affection he might have felt toward her. Hanlon should be there now with the others." Malloy nodded. "We'll make a soldier out of you yet," Sirocco said to Celia. "You're doing fine. Almost there now." Celia returned a thin smile but said nothing. She moved away with the others toward the far side of the compartment. Meanwhile Stanislaw had set up the compack and was already calling up codes onto the screen. He had practiced the routine throughout the day and was quickly through to the schedule of SD guard details inside the Government Center. "Well, Paul can't show

"And if they're not rich enough already, how is some crazy supposed to help?" "We'll manage," Veronica promised. "They're more awkward than heavy. You worry too much." Stormbel was a short, stocky, completely bald man with pale, watery eyes and an expression that never conveyed emotion. A thin moustache pencil-lined his upper lip. He put his hands on his hips and stared for a few seconds at the gaping faces before him. "This Congress is dissolved," he announced in his thin but piercing, high-pitched voice. "The Mission is now under the direct command of the Military." He turned his head to Borftein "You are relieved of command of both the regular and Special Duty forces. Those functions are now transferred to me." Colman grinned. "Okay, chief. I will." A short silence fell while they both thought about the same thing. "How long do you think it'll be?" Colman asked at last. Chapter 4. starship bridge has been violated. Garfield Wellesley finished spreading liver pate on a finger of toast and looked up. "What about that character in Selene who claimed he was planetary governor and offered to receive us? What happened to him?" "But she sure does give the man major class and respectability. Now you go out there and do the right. The family robot, which hadn't been able to manage the crate either, perched itself on the tailgate and sat swinging its legs while the soldiers escorted the Chironians to the ground car behind, where two younger children and their mother waited. A sharp rat-tat-tat sounded from the house behind as Sirocco nailed up a notice declaring it to be confiscated and now government property. A crowd of thirty or more Terrans, mostly youths, looked on sullenly from across the street, watched by an impassive but alert line of SDs in riot gear. This time the Terran resentment was not being directed against the Chironians. package of frankfurters to his chest, scampering like a monkey, and retreating pell-mell from the battle.
